Class History

It is said that history is a recording of the works of the great, but in this history of the Class of '54 cf D. C. T. S., there are no facts so outstanding as to change the course of civilizations. Nevertheless, the events leading to the golden days of graduation here have been varied and colorful.

Studies, social events, teachers, and classmates are all worthy of a place in this record. It should be most interesting to those concerned; so it is hereby preserved that those beyond these walls may know our lives and that years to come may not dim our memories.

On September 1, 1950, Miss S. J. Butler greeted 37 "greenies" as her homeroom class. We elected Irma Burke as president and lost no time beginning our struggle to reach our goal. This was a very prosperous, enjoyable, and exciting year; for we entered many clubs and took part in the various activities on the campus. Many of our classmates succeeded in attaining and maintaining the honor roll. Zelda Flint and Ruth Rucker were secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the N. H. A. Chapter. We had loads of fun preparing for and entertaining the ten schools of the Seventh District N. H. A. Rally. We were thrilled, too, at our singing abilities. At one of the assembly programs, our class won a prize in a contest for singing our Alma Mater.

We came back again in the fall of 1951 and began our career as sophomores. We were no longer "green" and we felt that we knew just everything. Although several members deserted us, we did not become disheartened—we just worked harder and with more determination to succeed under the guidance of Mrs. M. D. Hudson as our homeroom teacher.

Eight of our group were chosen as debutantes for the annual Debutante Ball sponsored by the Alpha Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. We made several field trips in connection with our class activities. The visit to the Filter Plant was most interesting. Roland Cain went to Georgia to attend the National Convention of the N. F. A.

1952 saw us as Juniors, a fact hard to believe, but most welcomed. Robert Dunn, a member of our class and an outstanding basketball player, left us to answer Uncle Sam's call to serve our country. We need not remind you that we are proud of him. We were proud, too, of the nine Junior girls who maintained an average that admitted them into membership of the Crown and Scepter Club. They were: Nellie, Ruth, Dorothy, Irma, Louise, Johnie Mae, Mary Foster, and both Rubys.

Miss White, our homeroom teacher, helped us experience the most exciting event of our school days—the Prom. Our memories will never dim as to what happened when we took that imaginary trip to visit the Atlantic Beach in Atlantic City, New Jersey. We enjoyed the frolics under the mammoth umbrella that spanned the greater portion of the gymatorium. We must tell how much we enjoyed all that comes from a concession stand on the beach: hot dogs, cokes, ice cream cones, and all types of souvenirs. Music furnished by Cleveland High School's band from Shelby was "real gone."

At last, we are seniors and 25 of the original 37 managed to withstand the obstacles of high school life. With two newcomers, we are preparing for graduation. Our past three years have taught us that instead of knowing everything, we have everything to learn. Mrs. C. L. Massey is our advisor and together we are planning an eventful climax to our high school career. Already we have taken a trip to Greensboro for their annual high school day. A few of us went to Statesville to the N. H. A. Rally. We supported "Nell" as a contestant in the A. & T.'s Alumni Sweetheart contest. She ranked third and received a cash award. For our own Homecoming, Louise Allen was our contestant.

Now as we are about to embark on the great highway of life, we are taking with us the possession rightfully gained and that we deem priceless—the joys and memories that our studies, social events, teachers, and classmates have wrought for us as high school students in the Davie County Training School.

Class Poem

We, the Seniar class of fifty-faur,
Can hear appartunity at our daar.
Our task is nat finished, just begun.
We're all in this race, and sa--must run.
Althaugh there are same wha stopped by the way,
Far twelve years we've yearned far this day.
Yet, we wha are here must do all we can,
Ta strive far success as originally planned.

As graduation nears, let's nat be sad,
Let's smile and rejoice and try ta be glad,
Schaal mates you'll saan be taking our place,
Yau have our best wishes far a successful race.
Ta the teachers and principal we regret leav-

But as far mare education, we'd like same too,
Yau, dear parents with your guiding care,
Accept our pledge ta do and ta dare.
